Coordinator's Message

Trick or Treat People!

I am so happy to say that the past few weeks have been filled with "Treats of Good News". Let me share some of that news with you:

Sponsor, Oak Tree Villa (OTV) and member volunteer, Pam Simmons, teamed up to put on a Classic Car Show serving hot dog/hamburger lunches and raffle drawings. Together with OTV's marketing director, Ana Knuckles and Pam's grandson, Shaun Simmons who works at OTV, the three of them with the help of other family members and employees, raised $551 to start our new Bingo Board Replacement Fund! I am happy to report that at the time of going to press a total of $761 has been raised. Our thanks go to Pam, Ana and Shaun for running with this idea and making it a success. Thank you to all of you who came out for the event. We are accepting donations to reach our goal of $4500. ☺

This was our busiest Grandparents Day Pancake Breakfast ever! The energy was great and the volunteers were fantastic. Marlene and her crew served a delicious meal. Thank you to Don Maurer, John & Leatrice Bachan, Jen, Claire & Brynn Bachman, Linda Carney, Gloria Crivello, Danielle, Joaquim & Naomi Cruz, Linda Depter, Marlene Flannery, Geri Gibson, Sue Kerr, Terri Lesniak, Elaine Myers, Sandy Payton, Carol Rogers, Tamima Schwartz, and our friends Sarah & Garret from Circle K at UCSC.

It gives me great pleasure to thank the Host Lions Club of Scotts Valley for their Platinum Sponsorship. They continue to be a source of support for all that they do for our members. I would like to especially thank SVSC Board Member and Host Lions member, Harvey Bustichi. He is always there to support me and the Center's needs ~ Grazie Mille!

A tremendous THANK YOU! goes out to Rena Riccabona of Bumble Bee by the Sea for so very generously donating prizes and supplies towards SVSC's first ever "New York New Year's Eve Party". Ronnie Fields and I are looking for volunteers to work on this committee. If you are looking for something fun to do, this is the team you should join. ☺

The Holiday Craft Faire is coming and we desperately need your help. Please check out the various areas you can assist on page 2. This year we are going to add a "Cake Walk". ☺

Ayan Patel continues to have a steady stream of seniors visiting him on Wednesdays with questions and request for technology help. Our iPad and iPhone classes with Joanna and David have been well received. If you missed this session, the next one will start in November. Please remember to bring your iPad and/or your iPhone with you.

The Chamber will host their annual Pumpkin festival on October 10th and 11th. Our lawn will be filled with a fantasy of hand blown glass pumpkins that will be on display and for sale. The Chamber is looking for volunteers, please call Angela Marshall at 438-1010 if you can help. In addition, Kristin and her team from Parks & Rec invites everyone to Movie Night at Skypark on October 17th. Hotel Transylvania will be playing. Bring the grandkids in their jammies and their blankies and your chairs for a fun family night out!

And now for some very exciting news!!!! The Scotts Valley Senior Center...drumroll...IS GETTING ITS VERY OWN FLAG POLE!!! Heartfelt thanks goes to Gov. Bobby Oneto and the members of Moose Lodge #545 for generously agreeing to fund and install a 20 foot flag pole and seat on the Senior Center grounds. They did not waste any time, as project coordinator, Eugene Bustichi, placed the order for it the very next day following my presentation request. In addition, we thank Janet Oneto, the Center's first long term coordinator, who will donate the American Flag that will fly on our flag pole. To that end, we are combining our annual Sponsor Appreciation Reception with the Inaugural Flag Raising Ceremony. I invite you all to attend. Details of this event can be found on page 2.

As you can see it is going to be a very busy month here at the Center. I hope to see all of you and encourage you to participate wherever and whenever you can. Your Time, Talent and Treasure is so very appreciated and it all goes towards making our Center a vibrant and fun, happening place to be. ☺

Until next time ~
Darshana Croskrey

2014 Holiday Craft Faire

Saturday, November 1st ~ 9am to 4pm
Sunday November 2nd ~ 10am to 4pm
 SV Community Center and Senior Center
 360 & 370 Kings Village Road
 Scotts Valley, CA 95066

This Scotts Valley tradition returns once again for its 21st year! Over 60 awesome new and returning favorite crafters. Wonderful raffle drawings provided by our generous vendors ~ $1 a ticket or $5 for 6 tickets. Music and Children's Entertainment. Roast Chicken Dinners and much more from the kitchen. Delicious home baked goods at the Bake Sale tables. For more information, please call the center at 831.438.8666.

Come and meet "Roxy" the Robot

She moves, lights up and carries items in her hands! Roxy has been generously donated by Renee McAnally, one of many vendors participating in this year's faire. Vendor donations will help raise money for the Center's activities through raffle drawings at the faire. If you want a chance to win "Roxy" or any of the other wonderfully crafted goods displayed in the office, tickets will go on sale October 1st. Stop by and check them out!

Volunteers for Craft Fair

The annual Craft Fair is here. This is our biggest fundraiser of the year. This will be its 21st year! To make it a successful event, volunteers are essential. We need your help in the following areas:

- Preparation help a week prior to the Craft Fair
- Advertising and Signage
- Raffle Ticket Sales
- Kitchen Prep
- Bake Sale
- Children Activities
- Set-up and Clean-up
- Assisting Vendors with set-up and clean-up

Please note that each shift is two hours long with an overlap of 10 minutes for shift changes. Sign-up sheets are located on the bulletin boards or contact Darshana at 438-8666

WATERCOLOR ~ All levels

This class is offered by well-known local artist and center member, Beverly Martin. Don't worry about initial supplies as Beverly will get you through the first class at which time she will give you a supply list. The class has two parts to it:

- Students work on a personal painting with the instructor rotating and working individually with each person
- The instructor will teach a 15 to 30 minute structured lesson using a certain technique(s) on an on-going piece of artwork. The students will then use that example to create the same thing on their own individual pieces of the same piece of artwork.

Date: Thursdays Time: 9am to Noon
Cost: $10 (m) $15 (n-m)

ART OF ZENTANGLE

The Art of Zentangle promotes therapeutic relaxation. The processes used will help increase your mental focus, fine motor skills and ease stress and anxiety.

Armchair Topics and Birthday Celebrations

Due to the busy "Holiday Season", the center will take a break from these two events and return on January 29th, 2015. The topic at that time will be "Holiday Happenings" followed by a celebration of the October, November, December and January birthdays

Please note: If there is a special topic you would like to learn about or if you know of a speaker that you feel will be of interest to our members, please contact Darshana at 438-8666.

Please accept my apologies for the omission in last months newsletter...a belated but most grateful "Thank You" goes to our Flea Market Bakers: Liz Beitzel, Betty Bly, Nancy Bowie, Linda Depner, Geri Gibson, Sue Greco & Harold Rice.

How often should I check my credit score?

Levin suggests you take a look at your credit score as often as possible.

Some credit card companies and banks are now providing credit scores free as part of their customers' monthly statement. A bill has also been introduced in Congress to give everyone free access to their score.

Until that happens, if your bank or card isn't providing scores for free, you may have to wait until either a creditor denies you or you pay FICO for the information.

Once you get a look at that magic number, you may want to take this advice on how to raise your score quickly.

I'm ready to ditch my debt. Do I pay off the card with higher interest or a higher balance first?

The answer to this question also rests largely on which financial guru you ask.

Some argue you should start with the smallest balance. Quickly paying off that account can give you the momentum you need to keep on your debt diet.

However, if you look at it from a purely financial standpoint, you'll want to start with the highest-interest card. Levin says paying off the high-interest card first saves the most money.

Should I co-sign a card for a friend or family member?

Absolutely not.

Co-signing for a card or loan puts you on the hook for the balance in the event your friend or family member stops paying. Or they could be paying late – which you may never know – and that could also negatively affect your credit score.

But I know that wouldn't happen. They are really good people!

I'm sure they are, but sometimes even good people make poor money decisions. Or life takes a turn you didn't expect. Rhonda knows all about that.

Bottom line: You shouldn't co-sign unless you're ready and able to assume the debt as your own in the event your co-signer, for whatever reason, can't pay.

When should my child get her or his first credit card?

Probably not until they have a real job and some emergency savings.

They need to have their own money before they start using someone else's money, so a steady job is a must. A work-study gig in the campus cafeteria for three months doesn't cut it either.

As for the savings, that's to ensure they don't get sucked into using their credit card for every minor crisis or shopping whim. Students need to get into the habit of saving before they perfect the habit of spending.

All that is fine and good, but the reality is you may not have much say in when your child gets his or her first credit card. While the CARD Act of 2009 made it more difficult for those younger than 21 to get a credit card, plenty of young adults are still finding ways to get their own plastic.

The best you can do is to educate your children on smart credit habits, hope it sinks in and refuse to co-sign any applications for them.

Gone But Not Forgotten

Friends gathered on a sunny September day to lay to rest member, Luella Mae Berry, next to the love of her life and husband, Stu Berry. Hailing from Steamboat Springs, Colorado, Luella was an executive legal secretary with Kaiser Aluminum for 33 years.

Always staying busy, Luella was honored for her many volunteer efforts within the local community: SLV Newcomers Club, SLV Jaguar Club, SLV Kiwanis Club, Santa Cruz Newcomers Club and the Scotts Valley Senior Center where she stepped down due to ill health after nearly 24 years of service!

We send our condolences to Luella's family and friends, especially her sister Katie Bowen, who traveled from Steamboat Springs to care for Luella in the final weeks of her life – R.I.P. Luella Berry
